Old Business: Hometown Christmas will be December 4-5, 2015. There will be lighting of the community Christmas tree at 7 pm followed by lighted Christmas parade at 7:30 pm on Friday, December 4th. Pictures with Santa (provided by WIATEL), decorating cookies and ornament decorating will be at the Kingsley Community Center 1:30 – 3 p.m. Crafts and vendors at the community center 9 – 3 p.m. This won't interfere with the children's play conducted by Emily Harvey and Jenny Howe (it's at 7 pm). Stacy will check with the KP Booster club about taking care of the ornament decorating table and contacting vendors for the craft fair. Randy Plendl has agreed to be Santa for us. Karla will check with Rick Bohle about the possibility of lights on the big tree on Main and 1st streets and with Tom Pedersen about the running club holding a 5K JINGLE BELL JOG. Three small trees will be placed in front of the big one for decorating. Hot chocolate and apple cider will be provided. Anyone who could help on either or both dates please contact Tami Rohde at 378-2322.

Karla will email the businesses about those who wish to participate in the turkey give away to place a bucket out in their business and then contact Chet's to purchase a turkey. Drawing for the turkeys will be held in conjunction with lighting of the tree.

Bart will contact the city's insurance holder about the liability if the chamber has an ice skating rink in the community on city property.

New Business: Kingsley Business Directory is due to be updated for 2016-17. Bob Davis has volunteered to contact businesses prior to the end of the year. Karla will get a list to him of those businesses. No other new business brought forward at the meeting.

Adjournment: Meeting was adjourned. The next general meeting will be at 12:00, Nov. 11, 2015, at Doosky's.
